GEORGE E. MARSH, - - - President
Hancock, Vt.

HENRY W. SPAFFORD, Sec'y and Treasurer
Rutland, Vt.

“What memories that little bronze button revives
Of marches and battles and prisons and blood,
Of Comrades who nobly surrendered their lives
As they charged to the front where the enemy stood.

Never was graven a souvenir more rare
Than the little bronze button the Vetterans wear,

’Tis the emblem of bravery
Which crushed human slavery—
Which tells of the men who went down to the grave

To make us in truth
What they sang in their youth,
‘The land of the free and the home of the brave.’ ”

CONSTITUTION

OF THE

Fourth Vermont Infantry Association

To keep alive the acquaintance and cordial relations existing among the members of the Fourth Vermont Infantry during the war for the preservation of the nation, to cherish the memories of those who have fallen, to recall the scenes of the camp, the bivouac and the battle, and to keep in mind and to carefully and proudly guard the sacred memories of the mighty and heroic past,

The Fourth Vermont Infantry Association adopted the following constitution at Brandon, Vt., October 18, 1907:

ARTICLE I.

All members of said regiment who have been honorably discharged therefrom may become members of this association by subscribing to this constitution and paying to the treasurer the sum of fifty cents.

ARTICLE II.

The officers of this association shall be a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, who shall be chosen at the annual meeting of said association, and shall hold their respective offices until their successors are elected.

ARTICLE III.

It shall be the duty of the president, and in his absence the vice-president, to preside at all meetings of the association.

ARTICLE IV.

It shall be the duty of the secretary, in addition to the ordinary duties of his office, to obtain a full roster of the members of the association, and keep a record thereof, with post-office address of each, and all changes of the same as they may occur.

ARTICLE V.

The treasurer shall have charge of the funds of the association, and make no payment except on the order of the president.

ARTICLE VI.

It shall be the duty of the president and vice-president to make arrangements for the meetings and cause notice of the same to be given through the secretary to all members of the association, to have the charge and direction of all expenditures, and the accounts of the same shall be paid by the treasurer on approval of the president or acting president.

ARTICLE VII.

Every member of the association shall furnish the secretary with his postoffice address and notify him of any change in the same.

ARTICLE VIII.

This constitution may be amended by a majority present at any regular meeting.

At the twelfth reunion of the association the secretary was instructed by vote to issue duplicate postal cards at the time of the notice for this reunion, that responses might be received from all living members of the association, if possible, in time for the publication and distribution to the comrades at this meeting of a new roster of all comrades who respond, or whose address can be otherwise ascertained by the secretary to be living.

The following roster contains the names of all who have responded upon the duplicate card sent them, or otherwise, and gives, so far as the secretary has been able to ascertain, the names of all the living members of the association, together with their post-office addresses, and the same is here submitted, with the suggestion that the names of any comrades, known to be living, with their postoffice addresses, be announced at this meeting or later forwarded to the secretary that they may be added to the roster before the same is published, and that the names of deceased comrades hereafter be noted, that they may be reported at future meetings.
